

Health and Safety Code section 18035.26 is hereby reprinted below:

Declaration of Delivery Sale

The undersigned purchaser hereby declares that he/she is agreeing to a delivery sale wherein he/she intends to actually and physically install the subject home described below, or accept responsibility for engaging the services of a licensed contractor to perform that installation. Additionally, the purchaser hereby declares that he/she understands that most manufacturers' warranties do not cover defects caused by improper site preparation or installation. The purchaser takes full responsibility for the proper storage, including blocking of the home and protection from the elements, prior to the completion of the installation. It is strongly recommended that, before entering into this agreement, the purchaser has ensured that the home described below will be installed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 18551 of the Health and Safety Code (see reverse side) and the manufacturer's installation instructions. Additionally, the purchaser should make certain that he/she can meet all permit and fee requirements, including school development fees, most of which may be financed, for the installation of the subject home.

Warranty Expiration

Notwithstanding Section 1797 of the Civil Code, in order to provide reasonable time for the installation of your home, the manufacturer's warranty, when applicable, will expire one year after either the issuance of a certificate of occupancy or 120 days from the close of escrow, whichever occurs first.
